Amnesty International USA Banner ($13.50) Strengthen your group's visibility with an Amnesty banner. This banner is 2-feet by 4-feet with a black AI logo on a blue field. It's an essential tool for any tabling event.	$13.50
Amnesty Temporary Tattoos ($.20 each) Express yourself creatively or make a statement without even saying a word with Amnesty's new temporary tattoos. These stylish tattoos with Amnesty's logo will look great on your hand, arm, shoulder or even your face! Wear them at demonstrations or sell them while tabling.	$.20
2006-2008 Basic Field Manual ($9.95) Your Amnesty group should already have one copy on hand (all existing groups recieved a copy last year, and new groups receive a copy when they register). However if your copy was lost, or you would like additional copies, you can purchase them for $9.95 each. The Basic Field Manual provide everything you need as an Amnesty activist, including an overview of AI's history and operations, information pages on today's central human rights issues, and hands-on activism tips. 70 pages, softcover.	$9.95
DVD: Use Your Voice for Human Rights, 16 minutes ($5.95) All AIUSA groups automatically recieve one copy of this DVD for FREE. Or watch it online at: www.amnestyusa.org/page.do?id=1101294&n1=4&n2=63&n3=130 Recruit others to our work and educate activists in Amnesty's basics with AIUSA's membership video. The video provides a brief organizational overview and highlights our work on Prisoners of Conscience, Stop Violence Against Women, Death Penalty Abolition, and the War on Terror/Torture. DVD contains both an English and Spanish version.	$5.95
DVD: Human Needs, Human Rights, 30 minutes (FREE) This video explains the evolution of Amnesty's mission and helps activists build their knowledge of the global movement for Economic Social and Cultural Rights (ESCR). It features three stories of activists who are working to advance economic, social and cultural rights - two are cases that Amnesty has taken up (South Africa and Mexico), and one examines how one organization, the Kensington Welfare Rights Union, is campaigning for ESCR in our own country.	FREE
DVD: Video Public Service Announcements (FREE) Television stations, whether network affiliates, local stations or cable networks, can also help our cause by airing our new "Instant Karma: The Amnesty International Campaign to Save Darfur" public service announcements. The reel includes PSAs featuring celebrities Don Cheadle and Jennifer Connelly, as well as spots featuring musicians Jack Johnson's and Willie Nelson's brilliant covers of "Imagine," (recorded exclusively for this purpose) set to original animation :60, and :30, lengths included.	FREE
Banned Books Resources and Action Materials (FREE) Banned Books Week is designed to draw attention to writers, editors, publishers, librarians and readers who suffer human rights violations because of their work. Every September (during the last week of the month), the American Library Association recognizes authors whose works have been banned and AI puts together a packet detailing cases of writers who have been imprisoned or otherwise persecuted. Included in the packet are casesheets, introductory notes and updates, an explanation of AI's role, UDHR citations, a petition, and a bookmark/postcard. You can use these materials throughout the year!	FREE
