

Apply Today!

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis until March 15, and start dates will range from February 15-April 1. Apply by filling in the following application and emailing, mailing or faxing it to:

Amy O'Meara
aomeara@aiusa.org
Amnesty International Business & Human Rights
5 Penn Plaza, 16th Fl
New York, NY 10001
Fax: 212-627-1451

Please include contact information for 1-2 references, noting their relationship to you. Applications will be reviewed by BHR Program Staff and a committee of Volunteer Leaders, and selected respondents will be interviewed over the phone.

---

Full Name:

Phone:

Email:

Local AIUSA Group or School (if applicable):

Year in school (if applicable) and major/minor:

Current Address, City, and State:

State or metro area you would like to cover:

Length of term you would like to serve:

? I have read the full job description for CAN Coordinator and can make the necessary commitment.

Please describe any potential conflicts that might interfere with this volunteer position (i.e., study abroad or extended travel, work schedule, etc):

In 500 words or less please describe your interest and qualification for becoming a CAN Coordinator. You may want to consider the following questions: What role/leadership position(s)/experience within Amnesty or other organizations have you held? What experience do you have related to issues of corporate accountability, in particular Amnesty CAN campaigns? After reviewing our website (www.amnestyusa.org/business) what areas of work are you most interested in working on?

Please also describe why you think there is potential in your geographic area to develop CAN activism, and any initial ideas you have to get local people involved.