

THE TORTURE QUESTION

A documentary originally broadcast on PBS in the fall of 2005. The film explores allegations of mistreatment and torture at Abu Ghraib prison in Baghdad. written, produced, and directed by Michael Kirk (Brookline resident)

Monday, May 22
7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

Brookline High School Auditorium
115 Greenough Street

Michael Kirk will be joined on the panel by:

Joshua Rubenstein, moderator
Northeast Regional Director
Amnesty International USA
(Brookline resident)

Melissa Hoffer, WilmerHale
she and her colleagues are defending a group of detainees at Guantanamo Bay

Charles Sennot
Neiman Fellow, Harvard University
former Middle East Correspondent
Boston Globe

TORTURERS USED TO PRACTICE THEIR CRAFT BEHIND A WALL OF SECRECY. NOW SOME U.S. OFFICIALS ARE DEFENDING TORTURE AS A NECESSARY TOOL IN THE “WAR ON TERROR.”

BY EYAL PRESS, AMNESTY MAGAZINE

sponsored by Student Action for Justice and Education, Brookline High School and the Northeast Regional Office of Amnesty International USA

for further information: Amnesty International USA (617) 623-0202 or aiusane@aiusa.org