GET ON THE BUS FOR HUMAN RIGHTS!

Friday, April 20, 2007

12th Annual Day of Human Rights Action
in New York City

Featuring protests at several locations in New York City and a panel of human rights speakers and activists. Join us for actions focused on government and corporate human rights violations around the world!

WHAT IS IT? Get on the Bus (GOTB) is a day of human rights action and education in New York City. Started in 1995, it is now the largest volunteer-run Amnesty International USA event! Last year, we had over 1200 students and volunteers. We invite you and your group to join us for this unforgettable day of activism where we will learn about specific Amnesty cases and human rights issues.

THIS YEAR'S ACTIONS:

- Darfur: Protesting the killings and displacement of millions in Darfur; Calling for an end to the conflict/genocide in the Darfur region of Sudan, and for an increase in the number of African Union forces to protect civilians
- Guatemala : Working to end to impunity in Guatemala by bringing former Guatemalan dictator, General Efraín Ríos Montt to justice.
- U.S./Guantánamo: Protesting the U.S. government's use of torture against detainees at Guantánamo Bay, and other U.S. human rights violations during the so-called "War on Terror"
- Bhopal : Targeting TIAA-CREF to pressure Dow Chemical to address the health, environmental, and social concerns of the people of Bhopal, India, 22 years after the massive gas leak.

VOLUNTEER: We are looking for local area coordinators, fundraising and media volunteers. Please join us in making this the best year ever!
