

Amnesty International USA's Health and Human Rights Network

Health professionals and other activists campaigning for human rights

HEALTH

IS A FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHT.

The mission of the Health and Human Rights Network is to mobilize AIUSA members and allies to work on the health and human rights-related aspects of Amnesty's campaigns and cases, to educate their communities about health and human rights, and to defend health professionals and other human rights activists who are targeted for their work to defend the right to health.

SIGN UP FOR "HEALTH & HUMAN RIGHTS" RELATED ACTION ALERTS AND UPDATES NEW!

Visit AIUSA's Online Action Center to sign up to receive periodic actions and updates involving health and human rights issues. The e-list is open not only to health professionals, but also to any human rights activists interested in working on cases or issues involving health-related rights. To join, visit <http://takeaction.amnestyusa.org>, and be sure to select "Health and Human Rights" as an Interest Area. For more information, please contact networks@aiusa.org.

E-BULLETINS FOR HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

Amnesty's Health and Human Rights Team, based at our headquarters in London, produces a biweekly electronic bulletin for health professionals. The bulletin includes highlights from literature related to health and human rights, web links, updates on medical letter-writing actions, summaries of Amnesty International's recent reports and statements, and conference announcements. To subscribe, please send a short message to <mailto:medical@amnesty.org>.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, please contact the Health and Human Rights Network at networks@aiusa.org.

Amnesty International is a worldwide, voluntary, activist organization of over 1.8 million members that works impartially to prevent violations of people's fundamental human rights.

Join AIUSA's Health and Human Rights Network to receive ongoing appeals involving Amnesty's health and human rights-related concerns. Your financial donation supports Amnesty International's work to document and respond to human rights abuses.
