

To the Clemency Board—

At this late date, and as a fellow Georgian, I am heartbroken that Troy Davis has not been granted a final stay. There is a reason why so many people have been moved to take a stand for him: Too. Much. Doubt. Please, in these final moments, reconsider this irrevocable decision. We all beg you.

Respectfully,
Holly Hunter
New York City