

FILEP KARMA

JAILED FOR RAISING A FLAG

AMNESTY
INTERNATIONAL

Dear Minister:

I urge you to take swift action to free prisoner of conscience Filep Karma, who was sentenced to a long prison term for simply raising a flag.

Police arrested Filep Karma in connection with a December 2004 public raising of the Papuan "Morning Star" flag. He was convicted of treason in May 2005 and sentenced to 15 years in prison. Since his arrest, many others in Indonesia have been arrested and tried for peacefully displaying flags.

All people have the right to peacefully express their political or religious beliefs. All governments are obligated to uphold and protect that right. Amnesty International believes Filep Karma has been imprisoned solely for the peaceful expression of his beliefs. I respectfully urge you to bring about his immediate and unconditional release.

Sincerely,
