MAHER ARAR

Maher Arar, a Canadian citizen and father, was travelling home to Canada from visiting his wife's family in Tunisia in 2002. While changing planes at New York City's JFK airport, he was detained by U.S. authorities and then transferred secretly, via Jordan, to Syria, where he was held for a year and tortured.

The Canadian government subsequently apologized and compensated Arar for its role in his treatment. In contrast, the U.S. government has failed to apologize or offer Arar any form of remedy.

Under the UN Convention Against Torture, and other human rights treaties, the U.S. government is obligated to fulfill the right of torture victims to remedy and redress—including an apology—for what they suffered.

TORTURE IS IMMORAL, ILLEGAL AND A CRIME. HELP END IT FOREVER. Urge President Obama and Congress to apologize to Maher Arar and fulfill his right to remedy by joining Amnesty International USA's "I Apologize" action.

- » FOLD into a paper airplane (see instructions below).

WHY A PAPER AIRPLANE? Maher Arar is a survivor of "extraordinary rendition"—the U.S. government's illegal practice of kidnapping and flying people to countries known to use torture.

PRESIDENT OBAMA & CONGRESS:
I apologize to torture survivor Maher Arar and urge you to do the same.
