

International Structure Chart

Amnesty International USA

AIUSA is one of many country sections that make up Amnesty International worldwide. AIUSA members elect a national board of directors to represent them. The board of directors employ AIUSA's executive director, who manages the staff. The staff works to serve and support the members.

tives to the International Council Meeting. The International Council is a gathering of representatives of all sections, which meets every two years.

The International Executive Committee carries out the decisions of the International Council and takes overall responsibility for the conduct of AI's affairs.

The International Executive Committee appoints the Secretary General, who is responsible for the day-to-day conduct of the international affairs, of the movement, and heads the International Secretariat.

Amnesty International worldwide

All international sections participate in decision-making by sending representa-

The International Secretariat provides professional expertise and support to the movement. It guides the organization's day-to-day work but is not authorized to make fundamental policy decisions.

