Israel invests millions to bring tourists to unlawful, Israeli settlements in the occupied West Bank, including East Jerusalem. ## WELCOMING REMARKS & CAMPAIGN PLENARY – ENDING GUN VIOLENCE

10:00am – 11:30am | Imperial Ballroom

Address by AIUSA Executive Director, Margaret Huang. Followed by our campaign plenary on Ending Gun Violence.

Nearly 100 people die every day due to gun violence. Government inaction means that despite making the headlines, gun violence remains an everyday reality – especially for many communities of color. The government must protect our right to life and help end gun violence. Join us for a powerful discussion among advocates and community leaders and learn how we can build a human rights movement to end gun violence.

Speakers: Ernest Coverson, Brendan Duff, Lamar Johnson, and Chico Tillmon

TRANSITION

11:30am – 11:40am

WORKSHOP BLOCK II

11:40am – 12:40pm

Anti-Union Violence & Human Rights Defenders in Central America | Cuvee

Guatemala and Honduras are among the deadliest countries on earth to defend labor rights. 98% of threats and violence against trade unionists are never investigated or brought to justice. Attempting to organize a new union, advocating for fair wages, or negotiating a contract are often met with threats, beatings, kidnappings, and murder. But unionists are building activist networks in both countries to protect rights defenders, expand economic justice, strengthen advocacy channels, and combat impunity.

Speakers: Alexis De Simone, Jorge Hernandez, and Maria Elena Sabillon

Arts Against Enforced Disappearances in South Asia | Chancellor

Enforced disappearances occur globally and cause ongoing suffering to victims and families. Workshop participants will learn about disappearances (with emphasis on South Asia) from experts and have an opportunity to use the arts as campaigning tools against enforced disappearances - including cartoon-drawing, poetry composition/readings, music and theater.

Speakers: Jim McDonald and Akriti Panthi

Facilitating Human Rights Education Programs on Refugee Crisis at High Schools | Crystal

Learn about a program developed by Amnesty's Chicago local group on the refugee crisis to teach member leaders how to facilitate Human Rights Education (HRE) discussions with students and offer ways students can help in their communities. Two teachers will share their experiences with HRE in their classrooms.

Speakers: Randy Harper, Laura Michalski, Blaine Mineman, and Kevin Zickterman

Humanity at Risk: Climate Change, Artificial Intelligence & the Future of Human Rights | Ambassador

As Amnesty continues to work on individual cases of abuse, we must also begin to address emerging human rights issues that have the potential to wipe out humanity: the destruction of earth's habitat due to climate change and the development of autonomous weapons systems that may someday become smarter and more powerful than people. Amnesty's experts on these topics—Chiara Liguori and Rasha Abdul-Rahim—will join us to discuss the current state of play, Amnesty's policy positions, and our strategies to avert disaster.

Speakers: Rasha Abdul-Rahim, Zeke Johnson, and Chiara Liguori

What's the Deal with Washington State?: End the Death Penalty and Make Progress Towards Unlawful Killings by Police in Your State | Gold

Amnesty's work to abolish the death penalty goes back over 40 years, and in 2017 we saw further erosion of the ultimate cruel, inhumane, and degrading punishment, as Washington State's Supreme Court ruled its death penalty unconstitutional! The same year activists in Washington made big strides to stop unlawful use of police lethal force, by offering a ballot initiative to bring greater accountability to when force is used unlawfully. Hear from key actors from Washington that helped influence and secure this progress and learn tips and tactics to help replicate CJ success in their home states.

ACTIVIST RECOGNITION & NETWORKING LUNCH

12:45pm – 2:10pm | International Ballroom

Join us as we honor some of our very own activists! Enjoy lunch and networking with your fellow human rights advocates from all around the country.

WORKSHOP BLOCK III

2:15pm – 3:15pm

Art as Activism | Cuvee

Learn how to create an effective immersive theatre piece that highlights a critical issue affecting the globe, specifically the refugee crisis. Teaching participants how to use art (poetry, theatre, film, etc.) to highlight critical issues affecting the globe. Based on past and upcoming Chicago local group projects, we examine how poetry can teach college students about enforced disappearances and immersive theatre can support refugee resettlement. Art as Activism will also provide an action and awareness plan on how to be a voice of change in this tumultuous period.

Speakers: Cliodhna Joyce-Daly and Andrea Sutherland

Healthcare is a Human Right | Crystal

Article 25 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights lists medical care as a fundamental human right, and yet, 400 million people worldwide are left without it --- with women, people of color, and those living in poverty disproportionately affected. Join us to learn more about this pressing issue and why it's so important that we take action --- and of course, find out new ways for activists at all levels to get involved.

Speakers: Ben Palmquist, Susan Rogers, Georgina Shanley, and Wamia Siddiqui

Human Rights Defenders Under Attack in the Philippines: How You Can Help! | Chancellor

Can you imagine being arrested solely for criticizing the President's human rights record? Having false charges brought up against you to silence your voice? Unfortunately, that is exactly what happened to Senator Leila de Lima in the Philippines. She has been a vocal critic of President Duterte's "war on drugs", which has resulted in the extrajudicial killings of thousands of people. Come and learn how you can help free Senator Leila de Lima!

Speakers: Paul Bloom, Catherine Cruz Sy, Andrew Fandino, Nerve Macaspac, and Cristina Palabay

The U.S. Global Killing Spree: How to Stop It | Ambassador

The U.S. government under President Donald Trump has dramatically increased the use of lethal force to kill people around the world, all in the name of fighting "terrorism." But there's been little explanation of who the U.S. is killing, under what legal authority, or how it's making us safer. Using recent reports from Amnesty International about civilians killed by U.S. drones and air strikes in Syria and in Somalia, we'll explain how the U.S. is killing civilians with no accountability. And we'll talk about ways of pressuring the U.S. government to put a stop to it.

Speakers: Daphne Eviatar

U.S. Arms Sales and the Hidden War in Yemen: Campaign Opportunities Ahead | Gold

The war in Yemen has created one of the worst humanitarian crises in the world: close to 60,000 people have died and 3/4 of population are in need of aid. Before the killing of Saudi Arabian journalist Jamal Khashoggi in Turkey, the Saudi Arabia-led coalition's role in the conflict in Yemen was often overlooked, and drew minimum coverage in the media. With renewed attention to the conflict in the media and Congress, activists have an opportunity to seize. This panel will highlight humanitarian crisis and human rights violations by all parties in the war and focus on the profoundly irresponsible role that the United States is playing behind the scenes.

Speakers: Alireza Azizi, Philippe Nassif, Scott Paul, Rawya Rageh, and Nate Smith

WORKING PARTIES ON RESOLUTIONS

3:20pm – 4:55pm | International Ballroom and State Room

Working parties are a space where AIUSA members can come together to discuss and make changes to the resolutions we will be voting on at the voting plenary. Come help us shape the policies that guide Amnesty International's future!

5:10pm – 6:10pm | Imperial Ballroom

Whether it's family detention, separation, pushbacks at the border, or attacks on refugee resettlement, the last two years of xenophobic attacks require resilience as well as innovative and strategic leadership from our movement. When empathy is under attack and refugees and asylum-seekers are vilified by the current administration and in the press, how are rights holders and advocates fighting to keep families together and free on a local, national, and international level?

Speakers: Eduardo Beckett, Erika Guevara-Rosas, Emilio Gutierrez Soto, Ashley Houghton, and Melineh Kano
