

List of Amnesty-verified attacks to date*

Below is a list of attacks by Russian forces in Ukraine which Amnesty International has verified to date. Some of these—including extrajudicial killings, strikes on hospitals and schools, indiscriminate attacks which killed or injured civilians, and the use of banned cluster munitions—may constitute war crimes under international law.

- Mar. 13: A civilian man was abducted by Russian forces and later found shot in the head.
- Mar. 9: Russian soldiers executed a civilian man in a village outside of Kyiv before raping his wife at gunpoint.
- Mar. 9: Russian soldiers executed a civilian man in his home in Bohdanivka.
- Mar. 6: Two attacks killed at least four civilians, including two children, at an evacuation crossing point in Irpin.
- Mar. 4: A cluster bomb killed one civilian in Kharkiv.
- Mar. 3: A “dumb bomb” killed 47 civilians in Chernihiv.
- Mar. 3: Russian soldiers executed a civilian couple outside their home in Vorzel.
- Mar. 3: Russian gunfire killed in Hostomel two civilians including the city’s mayor.
- March: Extensive bombardment on civilian structures killed at least eight civilians in Iziium, including two children.
- Feb. 28: Three Smerch rocket attacks killed at least five civilians in Kharkiv.
- Feb. 26: An explosive weapon hit a kindergarten in Chernihiv, starting a fire.
- Feb. 25: A missile damaged a school in Mariupol.
- Feb. 25: An Uragan rocket hit a preschool in Okhtyrka, killing three people, including a child.
- Feb. 24: A strike near a restaurant in Uman killed a civilian.
- Feb. 24: A ballistic missile struck a hospital in Vuhledar, killing four civilians and wounding ten more.
- Feb. 24: A large missile or rocket struck a residential block in Kharkiv, killing at least one civilian and injuring two.
- Feb. 17: Russian-backed forces struck a kindergarten in Stanytsia Luhanska, wounding three civilians.
- February: A civilian woman was shot and killed while looking over her fence at a Russian military vehicle in Bucha.

*This list is regularly updated